POTENTATE'S MESSAGE

My fellow Nobles,
I hope everyone had a great Christmas and a great start to this New Year. I am honored to serve as Potentate at Al Chymia Shrine

Temple. Any decisions I make will be for the best interest of the temple. Please feel free to contact me at any time with any concerns you may have or ideas that could help better the temple.

Our Temple has a lot planned for this year. One of our biggest fund raisers, the Circus, is just around the corner. The dates for the 2014 circus are February 27 through March 2nd. I want to say thank you to John McFarland our circus director for working so hard to get things ready on time. In order to have a successful fundraiser it takes all of us working together as a team. Communication is a key part of working together so please keep John informed of the times you are available so this event is properly staffed.

Part of being a Shriner is having fun. For starters, our annual super-bowl party will be on February 2nd, we also have a valentines dance February 8th, Circus appreciation dinner and dance will be held on March 8th, also our St. Patrick's Dinner and dance will be held on March 15th.

My theme this year is "Working together helping Kids"! Helping children is what the Shrine is all about, and I want everyone to have fun doing so.

Yours in Faith,
Earl C. Wright
Potentate 2013

ASSISTANT RABBAN

Dear Nobles,
My Lady Barbara and I would like to take this opportunity to wish each of you a happy and prosperous new year.

I want to thank each of you for your support while elevating me to the position of Assistant Rabban. As a member of your Divan I value this support and welcome any recommendations you may have for the good of our Temple.

Our 2014 Shrine Circus is just around the corner and I know our Potentate, Circus Director and Circus Committee have worked very hard to make this a successful event. I encourage our Nobility and their Ladies to support this event as well as many upcoming events that I know our Potentate has planned.

My Lady Barbara and I welcome our new Unit and Club Heads and encourage each of you to attend our Wednesday Night Socials.

May God's blessings be upon our lives and help us to serve those less fortunate than ourselves.

Jerry Taylor
Assistant Rabban

RECORDER

Happy New Year! New Year! New Potentate! Circus Time! Let's all get behind our Potentate Earl Wright and make this a banner year. The circus is looking great. We need ad sales, banner sales and workers. Hats off to John McFarland for his hard work and dedication. I am so happy for our entire Divan, they are very congenial and are trying hard to improve our working relations. Don't forget our Hot Springs trip on April 12, Derby Day. We plan to have a great time.

Fraternally, Your Recorder
Jimmy D. Norman, P. P.

AL CHYMIA SHRINE CLOWN UNIT

Dear Nobles:

It will be my privilege to serve as President of the Clown Unit for 2014. Serving with me will be Sean Hamilton – Vice-President, Harry Bungard – Treasurer, and Walt Fast – Secretary. The Clown Unit looks forward to the opportunities presented in the year ahead to serve the needs of the Temple and generate a spark of happiness in the children we meet.

Our new year began with a holiday party for a special needs family, Enrique & Laticia Ramirez. They are a Navy family, stationed at Millington Base; their seven year old daughter, Arianna, has been receiving treatments at St. Jude Hospital for the past four 1/2 years. We all had a delightful time.

Should you wish the Clown Unit to assist in one of your upcoming events, please contact me at greglacki11@gmail.com, or Walt Fast, Secretary, at jrbr549@comcast.net.

Our first scheduled event for January is the Chocolate Factory fundraiser at the Oak Court Mall on Saturday, January 25th. Skit practices for the Circus are scheduled for February.

Yours in brotherhood,

Greg Lacki

AL CHYMIA HISTORY

On December 14, 1909, a Permanent Home Fund was set up to provide a building for the Temple. After twelve years, Noble J. A. Fowler of the trustee's board reported the fund to be $49,339.48. On January 11, 1922, Potentate White appointed Nobles J. A. Fowler, A. B. Lewis and C. B. Quinn a "preliminary building committee." This committee made its final report at a meeting on February 8th, and the Temple authorized the Potentate to inaugurate a building campaign. A committee of fifty was appointed to sell five per cent second mortgage bonds, and $25,000 of these bonds was subscribed for before the meeting was adjourned.

According to the preliminary building committee's report, the enterprise was to cost $725,000. The building itself was to cost $500,000.00. Fees for the architects and engineers were set down at $25,000. The cost of site, furniture and the fixtures was set at $200,000. To raise this sum, the Temple proposed to add to the $50,000 on hand by note and bond sales as follows: 5% second mortgage notes, $200,000; short 6% second mortgage notes, $75,000; 30 year 5% bonds, $400,000.

Ground at the corner of Monroe and Front was purchased from the Orgill Estate and an elaborate building prospectus was issued showing a ten story building with a roof garden. Construction of the building was begun early in 1923, and plans were changed from a ten story building with a roof garden to one of thirteen stories with a swimming pool. The Change involved an additional expenditure of approximately $275,000.00.

The building was completed early in 1924 and dedicated on February 4th with impressive ceremonies. With $35,000 worth of furnishings, there were no more beautiful club rooms in the South. The Nobility of Al Chymia enjoyed these luxurious accommodations for five years. Then came the Depression. During the next decade of occupancy the enjoyment was marred by worries over building finances, which grew more distressing every year. Finally, at a foreclosure sale early in 1938, the New York Life Insurance Company got the building for its first mortgage.

The Nobility continued to occupy the club rooms for several months, and then moved to the club rooms formerly occupied by the Elks in a building which the Elks had lost which was the DeVoy Hotel. The DeVoy Hotel later changed its name to the King Cotton Hotel and was owned by Noble Arthur Landstreet.

HOSPITAL STAFF

We wish to thank all the units, clubs and Nobles who made donations in 2013. We also wish to thank the drivers who took time away from their families to transport our "Shriners' Kids". For the Shriners' kids and their families, the Hospital Staff Transportation Unit is the face of the Shrine. It is a heartwarming experience to hear the kids talk about "my Shriners". It is also heartwarming to see the attitude, strength and courage these kids put forth in becoming whole. Your Hospital Staff vans travelled over 80,000 miles last year transporting 118 patients on over 180 trips to hospitals in St. Louis, Cincinnati, Lexington, KY, Chicago and Galveston, some from Memphis and some from Savannah.

It is expensive to keep the vans running and in these economic times we are faced with families who have very few resources. The Hospital Staff provides meal vouchers where needed and provides accommodations at hotels when necessary as many patients must be overnight for surgeries. Please take a moment and make a donation to your Hospital Staff to help in our efforts. Thank you.

Bruce Cody Brand
President
Hospital Staff

ELVIS AND AL CHYMIA SHRINERS

Thru the years, Elvis came in contact with many members of our Temple. Here is a list of the ones that I know of and their relation with Elvis. I hope you find this list entertaining but please don't ask any of these Nobles that are still living for their autograph.

Dick Callicott----Was the Asst. Mgr. of Lowes State Theater and fired Elvis because he would not show up for work on time. Theater Mgr. Arthur Groom got credit for this action but Dick did the dirty work.

Mayer Eisman----Is the brother in law of disc jockey George Klein who was President of Elvis senior class in high school George worked for Elvis off and on for many years.

P.P. Milton Bowers----Was head of Memphis Draft Board#86 and he personally delivered Elvis his draft notice at Graceland mansion.

J.D. Parks-----Worked many security details for Elvis, especially during Cotton Carnival time. J.D. had many items that were autographed by Elvis to him.

Sidney Cole-----Planned many security detail for Elvis when he did concerts in Memphis and private parties at the Rainbow skating rink.

Bill Hardy -----Escorted Elvis to some of his private movie parties at the Memphian Theater.

P.P. C. Harris Cole---Was in charge of security detail at the Baptist Hospital when Lisa Marie was born. There is a picture of Harris escorting Elvis, Pricilla and Lisa leaving the hospital that was in many magazines.

Ralph Muench---Stopped Elvis one night not knowing who he was because there was a police blue light on the dashboard. Elvis explained to Ralph why he had it and Ralph let him go.

Fred Sexton---Went to school with Richard Davis who was Elvis valet for seven years. Richard also doubled for Elvis in some of his movies and was a member of the Elvis gang.

Jim Grisham---Was in charge of keeping the bugs out of Graceland. Jims company has been spraying Graceland for many years and has seen parts of the mansion that the tourist trade would love to see.

Jack Adams---Sold Elvis the Circle G ranch at Walls, Mississippi. Elvis spent a fortune on the place and really enjoyed ranch life as long as he owned the Circle G.

Bill Morris----Who was former Shelby County Mayor and Sheriff made Elvis a Deputy and did many favors for Elvis. Vernon Presley and Mayor Morris dad were life long friends. Elvis gave Bill a car for Christmas in 1970.

P.P. Roy C. Nixon--Befriended Elvis many times over the years. Roy also served as County Mayor and Sheriff and deputized Elvis and the entire Memphis Mafia. Roy gave Elvis flashing blue lights for his car.

Perhaps the most important Shriners that came into the life of Elvis after he died were P.P. Joseph Evans and the son of P.P. Blanchard S. Tual. Blanchard's son was appointed by Judge Evans as Guardian Ad Litem in re the Estate of Elvis Presley. Judge Evans did not like what he saw in the court papers regarding Colonel Tom Parker and R.C.A Records. These two Nobles along with ex-wife Pricilla are the main reasons that the Presley estate was saved and flourishes beyond anyone's wildest dreams.
